- It joins the list of more than 120 golf clubs worldwide that already working with the all-in-one technology of Golfmanager after Vale Do Lobo, the largest golf resort in the Portuguese country
- The Spanish company adds a new course and reinforces its leadership in the Portuguese golf market with a club that is already using its integration with Oracle Hospitality to manage, in a simple way, both the golf course and the hotel

Madrid, May 6th, 2021. Golfmanager, the leading 100% cloud-based software in Spain and Portugal for the digitization and management of golf clubs, today announced the addition of the Portuguese golf club, Quinta Da Marinha to the list of more than 120 golf courses that have already chosen Golfmanager to be digitized thanks to unique technology of the Spanish leading company.

Quinta Da Marinha, built in 1984, located in Cascais and with a total area of 5,870 meters offers fantastic views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Sintra Mountains. Players can enjoy playing on an 18-hole, par 71 course designed by architect Robert Trent Jones.

It stretches along the coast of Lisbon. This course won the award for the best European golf destination by the prestigious IATGO (Global Organization for Golf Tourism) in 2007 and 2016. A unique enclave and one of the dream places to practice golf.

Golfmanager increases its figures in Portugal by adding top clubs

The addition of Quinta Da Marinha reinforces the indisputable leadership of Golfmanager also in Portugal. The Spanish company continues to increase its figures in the Portuguese market where they announced Vale Do Lobo, the largest golf resort in the country, as a new club joining the network of golf courses that are already digitized thanks to the cutting-edge all-in-one technology that is already used by more than 120 clubs around the world.

Golfmanager attracts the attention of powerful clubs who choose it instead of using traditional management softwares. A clear market trend that is reflected in the figures of Golfmanager in Portugal, where it already has 30 digitized courses thanks to its powerful technology with Oracle Hospitality as an official partner.

Quinta Da Marinha is one of the clubs that successfully uses this integration with Oracle Hospitality, which is allowing them to easily manage both the golf course and the hotel. A clear advantage that allows them to charge any new amount directly to the client's room from the Golfmanager software itself.

Rafael Vera Golfmanager CEO points out: "We are very excited to see how more and more golf courses choose Golfmanager. And, above all, what is more exciting is that this election comes from top courses in the European golf industry. This only means that we are going in the right direction".
